Emmy Awarding-winning "Raggs" sings "Wheels on the Bus," "Old MacDonald," "Five Monkeys Jumping on the Bed" and more for TV, iTunes, YouTube and other media libraries.

(JANUARY 7, 2015 – CHARLOTTE, NORTH CAROLINA) -- The five pups from the Emmy Award-winning "Raggs" TV series announce the release of their new album, Top Kids Songs Volume 1, and companion videos to hit songs such as "The Wheels on the Bus," "Old MacDonald," and "Five Little Monkeys Jumping on the Bed." The album is available on iTunes and other popular digital music outlets or for streaming on Sirius Radio and Time Warner's Music Choice channels. "Raggs" new animated music videos are being released on the RaggsTV YouTube channel and Raggs.com starting January 1 and will continue over the coming months. The new videos will also be included in the TV series.

"It was fun to have the Raggs Band back in the studio and to record new, fresh renditions of these classic songs," Fred Story, head of "Raggs" music team and founder of Concentrix Music and Sound Design in Charlotte NC, commented. "The original cast also reprised their roles in clever cameo intros to each song. The whole album rocks in true Raggs fashion!" Fred Story and Michael McGinnis, also a key "Raggs" team member at Concentrix, arranged the new songs and produced the music sessions. The songs are all public domain songs and no writer credits are known.

While the "Raggs" TV series already includes over 200 original songs, the team at Blue Socks Media, owners of the "Raggs" brand, felt the demand for these songs from their online and live show fans. The new songs will also be incorporated into the "Play at Palladium with Raggs" program at the Grand Palladium Resorts in Punta Cana, DR; Montego Bay, Jamaica and in Riviera Maya and Puerto Vallarta, Mexico where the "Raggs" characters perform live shows and host events.

"Raggs" can be found daily on Qubo cable TV in English, on Telemundo in Spanish, at Raggs.com and RaggsTV on YouTube.
